Memorandum

Date: June 16, 2011
To: Parks, Recreation, and Beaches Board
From: Terry Rynard, Parks and Recreation Acting Director
Subject: Holiday Park – Racquetball Courts

James Santiago is a resident of the Victoria Park Neighborhood and a registered Landscape Architect practicing in the City of Fort Lauderdale. He will be present to discuss the expansion of the Holiday Park racquetball courts. Currently, there are four courts and Mr. Santiago is proposing that the number be expanded to 10 courts. His proposal also includes the building of a new facility on the site of the northern most hockey ring just west of the existing courts. This facility would serve the current daily needs of the park and also serve as a tournament facility, in the hopes of drawing tourist dollars to the City of Fort Lauderdale.
