

Kijiji Moja

A BLACK HISTORY MONTH CELEBRATION

Saturday, February 18, 2012

3:00 to 5:00 p.m.

Joseph C. Carter Park

1450 W. Sunrise Blvd. • Fort Lauderdale, FL 33311

Kijiji Moja means “one village” in Swahili.

This free event helps communities and their families unite through live entertainment, drumming circles, ethnic crafts, tribal storytelling and other inner-attainment.

The Drug Awareness Parade in memory of Jerome E. Gray, Esq. will end at Carter Park and be followed by a Drug Awareness Rally conducted by the Mount Olivet Seventh Day Adventist Church. Kijiji Moja is held in partnership with the Durr’s Homeowners Association.

For More Information, Call (954) 828-5411 or visit www.fortlauderdale.gov/life.

If you would like this publication in an alternative format (large print or audio tape), or if you need reasonable accommodation to participate in this program, please contact Marie Rock at (954) 828-4610 or mrock@fortlauderdale.gov.

